

Web hosting, email and domain included in the price

We booked a domain of one of the most common types (.Com /.'s/. Net) for you. We will make all efforts, simply tell us the name of your interest and if available, the website will be published in, for example, www.sudominiopreferido.com and email address will be sunombre@sudominiopreferido.com.

You no longer have to change email address if you change your ads provider, your address will be the same and will have full control over it, since the retention of titles is done in your name.

You can tell the domain of your choice by filling in the registration form in MS Word. Please note that we can only reserve a domain name if available.

Check if the domain you want is available:

.com.net.org.info.biz.ws.es.com.es.nom.es.org.es

The offer includes email accounts (pop3 and webmail) and the web server at full speed and without publicity.:
